~GOD~ © Xen.

~God – is a creative child;

resting among stars in a cosmic play box;

munching warm pumpkin cookies, drinking milk;

cheerfully mixing forms of dust and water;

while drowsily pondering;

the dancing figures she moulds of clay;

who during nap time;

on pillows of warm cloud blankets;

she dreams of them;

floating over blue sky heavens;

under rain, wind and sun;

gently – fading away...
